How does Ombudsman take decision?

- Shall consider the complaints relating to deficiency in service only.
- Proceedings before Ombudsman shall be summary in nature;

- Settlement through conciliation – Ombudsman promotes the settlement of the complaint by mutual agreement between the complainant and the Company through conciliation or mediation;
- In case, RE's fails to submit reply along with supporting documents within the time of 15 days, the Ombudsman may proceed ex-parte based on the evidence available on record and pass appropriate Order or issue an Award
- If not reached any settlement, Ombudsman pass an Award / Order either allowing or rejecting the complaint along with reasons for passing such Award/Order;
- For any consequential loss suffered by the complainant, the Ombudsman shall have the power to provide a compensation up to Rupees 20 lakh, in addition to, up to Rupees One lakh for the loss of the complainant's time, expenses incurred and for harassment/mental anguish suffered by the complainant.
- The complaint would be deemed to be resolved when:
 - a. It has been settled by the Regulated Entity with the complainant upon the intervention of the Ombudsman; or
 - b. the complainant has agreed in writing or otherwise (which may be recorded) that the manner and the extent of resolution of the grievance is satisfactory; or
 - c. the complainant has withdrawn the complaint voluntarily.

Note: Ombudsman may reject a complaint at any stage if the case is non-maintainable under clause 10 above or in the nature of offering suggestions or seeking guidance. OR if they found there is not deficiency in service or no financial loss or damage to the complainant, etc

Can a customer file appeal, if not satisfied with decision of Ombudsman?

- Yes, Ombudsman's decision is appealable;
- If customer is not satisfied with the decision of Ombudsman, he may prefer an appeal with the Appellate Authority within 30 days of the date of receipt of the Award or rejection of the complaint.
- The regulated entity will not have any right to appeal in cases where an award is issued by the ombudsman against it for not furnishing satisfactory of documents and timely information.

- RE may go in for appeal within 30 days from the date of receipt of the letter of Award after approval of Chairman / MD / CEO;
- RBI's Executive Director-in charge of Consumer Education and Protection Department would be the Appellate Authority under the integrated scheme.
- The customer is at liberty to approach any other court/forum/authority for the redressal at any stage.
