This Policy defines and lays down the process for lodging a 'Complaint', the safeguards in place for the Whistleblower, the roles and responsibilities of all Stakeholders, and also sets the timelines for all the processes to be followed.

In all instances, the Company retains the prerogative to determine when the circumstances warrant an investigation and the appropriate investigative process to be employed, in conformity with this Policy and the applicable laws and regulations. Stakeholders are given protection in two important areas, namely, (a) confidentiality; and (b) against retaliation/ victimisation.

V. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

To ensure that this Policy is adhered to, and to assure that the concern will be acted upon seriously, the Company will:

1. Ensure that the Whistleblower lodging the Complaint and/ or the person processing the Protected Disclosure is not victimised for doing so;
2. Treat victimisation as a serious matter, including initiating disciplinary action on person/(s) indulging in victimisation;
3. Ensure complete confidentiality;
4. Take appropriate measures to avoid any evidence of the Protected Disclosure being concealed;
5. Take disciplinary action, if anyone destroys or conceals evidence of the Protected Disclosure made/ to be made; and
6. Provide an opportunity of being heard to the persons involved especially to the subject.

This Policy should not be used in place of the Company grievance procedures or be a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against colleagues.

VI. PROTECTION TO WHISTLEBLOWER

1. Protection

The Whistleblower, raising a concern relating to Unethical and Improper Practices under this Policy, will not be at risk of suffering any form of retaliation. Retaliation includes discrimination, reprisal (punishment), harassment or vengeance in any manner. The Whistleblower will not be at the risk of losing her/ his job or suffer loss in any other manner like transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistleblower's right to continue to perform his/ her duties/ functions including making further Protected Disclosure regarding Unethical and Improper Practices, as a result of reporting under this Policy. The protection under this clause is available only when:

- i. The communication/ disclosure is made in Good Faith;
- ii. He/ she reasonably believes that information and any allegations contained in it, are substantially true; and
- iii. He/ she is not acting for personal gain.

Anyone who abuses the procedure (for example by maliciously raising a concern knowing it to be untrue) will be subject to disciplinary action, as will anyone who victimises a colleague by raising a concern through this procedure. If considered appropriate or necessary, suitable legal actions may also be taken against such individuals.

However, no action will be taken against a Whistleblower who makes an allegation in Good Faith, reasonably believing it to be true, even if the allegation is not subsequently confirmed by the investigation.

2. Zero Tolerance to Harassment or Victimization

The Company will not tolerate the harassment or victimization of a Whistleblower. As a matter of general deterrence, the Company shall publicly inform Employees of the penalty imposed and disciplinary action that will be taken against any person for misconduct arising from retaliation.

Any investigation into allegations of potential misconduct will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures already taking place concerning an Employee reporting a matter under this Policy.

Whistleblowers who believe that they have been retaliated may file a Complaint with the Whistle Officer. A proven Complaint of retaliation shall result in a proper remedy for the person harmed and severe disciplinary action, including termination of employment, shall be taken against the retaliating person. This protection from retaliation is not intended to prohibit managers or supervisors from taking action, including disciplinary action, in the usual scope of their duties and based on valid performance-related factors.

Any Stakeholder assisting an investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistleblower.

VII. ROLE OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee is responsible for supervising the implementation of this Policy, including the work of the Ethics and Compliance Committee. However, identity may have to be disclosed to conduct a thorough investigation, to comply with the applicable law and to provide accused individuals their legal rights of defence.

IX. DISQUALIFICATIONS

A Reportable Matter should not be confused with a grievance related to employment/ superior-subordinate relationship/ relationship with peers. Similarly, complaints associated with unsatisfactory probation reports, performance evaluations, favouritism and nepotism, and alike would not be covered under this Policy. Such cases shall be referred to the Human Resources Department of the Company and redress sought through other mechanisms established within the system.
